

Funkwagon

That's right, your favorite band in the whole entire universe is going to be playing again at the Gathering Place in Hackettstown on an outside "kicking system" (so I am told)!

How do you get there?
Excellent question for I will reveal these secrets to you!

Directions from HWY 80 East
Take exit 26 for route 46 east towards hackettstown go down big hill and take second u-turn head back up hill, the gathering place is on your right if you get to the A&P you've gone too far

Festivities start at 6:30
we will be playing along side Sycamore Seed

So come out and support these two bands and come out and just groove with us!
